

GUIDANCE NOTES FOR ENROLMENT

- We recommend that learners enrol for just one subject at a time. If you take on too much too soon you might find yourself overstretched.
- If you have not studied a subject at GCSE level we recommend you that you check the entry level requirement before proceeding to A Level.
- The cost covers the course resource pack, tuition fees and exam entry fee (first attempt only).
- If you choose to pay by our instalment plan you must include a deposit of 20% of the course fee plus the £20 instalment plan fee with your enrolment form. We'll not process your enrolment without receiving this deposit. Please make your cheque payable to The Marine Society.
- Whilst The Marine Society is a registered examination centre, which means we can enter our learners for examinations at GCSE and A Level, it remains the learner's responsibility to make sure that he/she can comply with the demands of the syllabus in terms of submission of coursework, oral, and aural assessment.
- A separate fee is payable for any additional examination entries or for seafarers who wish to make an entry as a private candidate:

I/GCSE	Exam Entry Only	£89
AS Level	Exam Entry Only	£99
A Level	Exam Entry Only	£149

- If we enter you for the examination the default location for sitting the examination is at our London headquarters. It may be possible to make alternative arrangements, such as sitting the examination on board ship, but this ought not to be taken for granted.
- Course materials and tutor support will be provided by our partners Oxford Open Learning. Issues of an administrative nature or examination entry should be directed to us.
- If you are unsure about any aspect of your enrolment or study plans please do not hesitate to contact us for free, confidential and expert advice.

You can contact us online at marine-society.org or by email education@ms-sc.org or telephone 020 7654 7050

Paying by instalment plan? Here's how it works:

1. A deposit payment of 20% (of course fee) plus £20 (instalment method fee) is required. This should be completed on the 'Details for Deposit/Full Payment' page of the enrolment form.
2. The remaining 80% is paid over 4 equal monthly instalments, which should be completed on the 'Bankers Order' page of the enrolment form. See the IGCSE example below:
 - RN/RM price: £337.70
 - Deposit: £87.54. This is 20% of course cost plus £20 (Please note: the £20.00 instalment method fee is non-refundable).
 - 4 Monthly payments of £67.54 (until £270.16 is remitted). This is the balance divided into 4 equal monthly payments.

LEARNER AGREEMENT

This document will:

- Explain what you can expect when you enrol on a distance learning course through Marine Society
- Provide you with a guide so that you will know what Marine Society and Oxford Open Learning (OOL), our learning partner, expect from you.

Throughout your studies you can expect Marine Society to:

- provide you with details of services available to you
- provide you with on-going support and guidance
- contact you routinely and provide support if necessary
- manage any administrative issues and contact OOL on your behalf, if necessary
- request routine updates from you on how your studies are progressing
- provide you with updates on changes to qualifications
- provide you information about examination/assessment arrangements
- register you for examinations and make all necessary arrangements
- If you are in the RN/RM or RFA provide course progress information to your education officer.

You can expect the OOL to:

- send you course materials and information about coursework requirements
- ensure all course materials and documentation you receive are relevant, up-to-date and compliant with current specifications
- provide you with course materials and other support resources
- provide a 'mock' exam and associated tutorial support
- provide you with the email address and telephone number of your personal tutor.

Your personal tutor will:

- contact you by telephone/email within two weeks of your enrolment
- provide advice, information and support throughout your studies
- mark your course assignments and provide detailed feedback
- return your assignments within the specified time
- contact you by telephone or email as required throughout the course.

Marine Society and OOL expect you to:

- maintain regular contact with Marine Society with information on how your studies are progressing by completing an electronic monthly learner self-assessment
- advise Marine Society as soon as possible about any changes to your circumstances that may affect your studies
- maintain routine contact with your OOL personal tutor throughout your studies
- complete course assignments regularly and at least once every two months
- ensure your tutor knows of any change to your circumstances impacting on your ability to study e.g. being deployed or out of contact for a long period.
- inform Marine Society if you need help or if you feel you are not receiving the agreed service
- inform Marine Society if you are thinking about withdrawing from the course
- familiarise yourself with Marine Society Safeguarding Policy.
- Complete the post induction survey, and following completion of your course the 12 month and 24 month update surveys.

I have received initial guidance on my chosen course. I understand that if I do not comply with these agreements, I may be withdrawn from my studies.

I have read Marine Society Safeguarding Policy and including Prevent and British Values, and confirm my understanding of it.
