STEP ONE: DISCUSS

You can discuss your choices with us and we can help you through the induction process, from your application and diagnostic assessments to your first assignment.

Call us on 020 7654 7050 or email education@ms-sc.org.

STEP TWO: APPLY

Fill out our enrolment form and we are happy to answer any questions you may have. Once you're ready, send your completed form to us via email or post.

STEP THREE: STUDY

Work through your study materials under the supervision of your tutor. Your tutor marks your work with constructive comments and offers helpful feedback. All tutor support is available to you via email and phone. Extensions and deferrals may be possible on account of work commitments – talk to us if you're unsure.

STEP FOUR: ACHIEVE

We enter you for your exams and handle the paperwork. We can arrange for you to sit your exam on your naval base, on board a ship or when deployed, giving you the flexibility to study while working.

"The Marine Society provides great support to sailors – Royal Navy & Merchant Navy. Learning through life makes us better mariners and better people."

Rear Admiral
John Clink CBE RN

WHY STUDY WITH US?

SUPPORT

We have partnered with leading distance learning providers who offer experienced and proactive subject-specialist support. We're the number one choice for RN/RM/RFA personnel studying at sea.

VALUE FOR MONEY

Thanks to our partnership with Greenwich Hospital, we can offer reduced prices for your learning. You can also use your RN Standard Learning Credits to reduce the cost further.

FLEXIBILITY

There are no set start dates so you can enrol at any time during the year. The courses are flexible and can fit around your work and family commitments.

FREE ONLINE RESOURCES

You can easily access learning resources and important documents through our Virtual Learning Environment (VLE).

EXAMS

As a registered exam centre, we will enter you for your exams and can arrange for exams to be taken on a naval base, at sea, or when deployed.
